

UF Lastinger Leadership Summer Summit 3-Day Institutes

Instructional Coaching

Instructional coaches empower teachers to "own" their instructional decisions and act in the best interest of the children they serve. The Instructional Coaching Institute is the first component in the UF Instructional Coaching Certification and will provide participants with:

- A theoretical foundation of coaching
- An understanding of collaborative coaching
- An introductory development of coaching tools and techniques
- A simulated experience to increase coaching efficacy in working with teachers

Participant Outcomes

- Understand the goals and focus of the Lastinger Coaching Model
- Use key components and instructional framework to identify goals that improve instruction and help teachers make instructional shifts to encourage high achievement
- Learn fundamental coaching skills and techniques that support collaborative learning by teachers
- Introduce conversation protocols to help teacher learning
